

Four Directions All Nations March

Host Organization— Red Earth Women's Alliance

Friday, October 7, 2005 Denver, Colorado

Meet at starting points at 5:00 p.m.

Step off at 5:30 p.m. sharp

The Medicine Wheel formation will be made of all peoples of conscience for the visualization of Peace, inclusivity of all Nations, legislation for the transformation of the Columbus Holiday and the racism of anti-immigration.

GATHERING SITES

NORTH

Globeville Landing Park

38th & Arkins St. (Wear Red)

WEST

Viking Park

Speer & Federal (Wear Black)

EAST

Triangle Grass Area

Speer & Auraria
(Wear Yellow)

SOUTH

REI Store

15th & Platte
(Wear White)

For More General Information or
Sponsorship call: 303.691.1620

Drums from all Nations are invited. Please bring banners identifying your organization/group, lots of water, dress your children warmly, bring candles and come prepared to experience the spirit in the earth, wind, fire and water.

SPONSORS: All Nations Alliance, American Indian Movement of Colorado, American Friends Service Committee, Barrio Warriors, Bread and Roses Workers Cultural Center, Breakdown Books, Cesar Chavez Committee, Chiapas Coalition, Chicano/Studies Dept. MSCD, Conflict Center, CO Anti-Violence Program, Dandelion Center, Denver Alliance for Democracy, Escuela Tlatelolco Centro De Estudios, Four Winds American Indian Project, Industrial Workers of the World, Jobs with Justice, Journey Through our Heritage, Longmont Citizens for Peace and Justice, MeCha/UMAS UCD, Justice for Janitors, SEIU Local 105, Left Hand Books, Loloma Foundation, 3November Movement, New Jewish Agenda, Northern Cheyenne Sandcreek Descendants Organization, Rights for All People/Derechos para Todos, Rocky Mountain Peace and Justice Center, and many more sponsors to be announced soon.